HA-HA CLUBHOUSE TEE-HEE! CHUCKLES HEE-HEE! HO-HO

Hi, kids! This is KELLY THE GREAT invitin' all of ya to come on in! There's plenty of room for everybody! The more the merrier (that's what the man who packs the cans always says to the last sardine)—when it's JOKE-TIME in the old clubhouse...!

Bein' that I'm a born leader (my mom says it shows in the lead in my shoes whenever she sends me on an errand), I'll start off....

My cousin, Mickey, is a real terror. He gets into so much trouble, his mom takes his temperature whenever he behaves.

One day Mickey's pop was leaving on a business trip, and he said, "Mickey, if you're good the whole week I'm away, I'll give you a dollar when I get back."

As soon as he came home a week later, his pop said, "Mickey—I'm not going to ask your mother if you were good. You tell me yourself. Do you deserve that dollar?"

Mickey thought and thought, and at last he said, "Pop, gimme a penny."

Another day, Mickey's mom said, "Mickey, have you seen the canary? I can't find him anywhere."

"Ya can't?" Mickey said. "That's funny! He was there just five minutes ago when I cleaned him with the vacuum cleaner."

Another time Mickey's father was proud of him for a split-second....

"Pop," Mickey said, "I was at the dentist's today—and I didn't even cry once!"

"You didn't?" his father said. "Mickey, I'm proud of you! Here's a dollar for being such a brave boy! Now tell me, Mickey—what did the dentist do to you?"

So Mickey told him: "He pulled two of mom's teeth."

Once Mickey's mother got real angry. "Mickey," she said, "you promised me you wouldn't fight today! And I just heard that you gave a black eye to one of those two little boys who just moved in next door!"

"Gosh," Mickey said, "I had to, mom! They're twins—and I had to have some way to tell 'em apart!"

Once, for a split-second, Mickey's mother was proud of him. That was when Mickey ran into the house and asked for a dime for an old man who was crying out in the street.

"You dear little kindhearted boy," Mickey's mom said. "Of course I'll give you the dime. By the way, did you hear what the old man was crying about?"

"Yup, Mickey said, running out with the dime, "He's crying, 'Fresh roasted peanuts, a dime a bag'!"

Hi, kids, this is PIZZA! And if ya think Kelly's cousin is funny—wait till ya hear about my cousin, Sammy!

Bein' that Sammy's my cousin, he's a born eater....

Once Sammy was eating so much, his mother took him to the doctor.

"Doctor," she said, "my Sammy eats grapes all day long."

"So what?" the doctor said. "Everybody eats grapes."

"But doctor," she said, "my Sammy even eats them off the wallpaper!"

Then there was the time he came home from a party—and his mom said, "Sammy, I hope you didn't take a second piece of cake at the party."

"Mom," Sammy said, "you should know me better than that! I took two pieces the first time!"

At Sammy's last birthday party, instead of serving one big beautiful cake with nine candles—his mother served nine big beautiful cakes with one candle!

One day his mother scolded him: "Sammy," she said, "there were two big pieces of ice cream cake in the refrigerator this morning! And now there's only one piece! Can you explain that, Sammy?"

"Sure," Sammy said. "The electric light inside the refrigerator is busted—and I didn't see the other piece!"

Once Sammy got into an eating contest. He ate twelve hamburgers, twelve hotdogs, a whole apple pie, and two quarts of ice cream. Nobody could beat that, and Sammy won.

When they gave him the prize, they asked, "Well, champ—is there anything you want to say?"

"Yup," Sammy said. "Don't let my mom know, or I won't get any dinner tonight."

Hi, kids, this is JINX! I don't have any funny cousins—but here's a bunch of funny boners I pulled on some tests that I didn't get 100% on. . . .

A fjord is a Swedish automobile.

Daniel Boone was born in a log cabin that he built himself.

A midget is a little wharf whose native home is in Africa.

A Scotland Yard measures two feet and eleven inches.

Flotsam and Jetsam were a famous team of comedians.

Mongoose is a Scotch male goose.

An Indian baby is called a caboose.

History calls people Romans because they never stayed long in one place.

This is Jinx still talkin'! . . . Sometimes my teacher asks us to make up sentences with special words in them!

Can ya guess what I found out about her when I read my sentences out loud? The poor ole lady has sneaky ears!

I know it sounds goofy, but she told the whole class herself. When she heard my sentences, she told us that she couldn't believe her own ears. . . .!

These are the words she gave us:

1) butter; 2) avenue; 3) catgut; 4) daisies; 5) folder 6) wiggle.

And here are the sentences I made up:

1) She wanted to go swimming butter mother said no.

2) I avenue baseball bat.

3) Our dog got fleas but our catgut kittens.

4) Mom's tickled pink when school starts because my kid-brother's such a pest the daisies at home.

5) Kids should always show lots of respect folder people.

6) My uncle never goes out when it's windy because he's afraid his wiggle come off.

Hello, boys and girls—this is CHOP-STICKS! If you like, I tell some funny riddles now. . . .

If your uncle's sister is not your aunt, what is she to you?

Your mother.

Why should no man starve on the desert? Because of the sand which is there.

What is the longest word in the English language?

Smile, because there is a mile between the first and last letter.

Why aren't short people as lazy as tall people?

Because they aren't as long in bed.

Why does a stork stand on one foot?

If he'd lift the other foot, he'd fall down.

What must one do to have beautiful hands?

Nothing.

What time is it when the clock strikes thirteen?

Time the clock was fixed.

Which is the strongest day of the seven?

Sunday, because the others are week days.

When is coffee like the soil?

When it is ground.
